Exceptional Outcomes

Exceptional means to stand out and rise above mediocrity. It is disconcerting when an individual is not at his or her maximum potential. Average could be a result of several factors including, lack of exposure, self-imposed limitations, negative thinking, or lack of effective effort. Exceptional outcomes are typically connected with consistent dedication, purposeful unity, prayerful efforts and an optimistic attitude.

In Genesis 12:3, God told Abraham that he would be a blessing to all the families of the earth. We were created by God to be exceptional...exceptional parents, friends, professionals, and more. There is a sacrifice for the standard of excellence. However, when we operate in God's will, our endeavors energize us. To others, our work may even look trouble-free. Yet, our obedience to God and our commitment to the extraordinary provide motivation in the midst of disappointments, challenges, and triumphs.

The Cambridge Community desires to train an exceptional generation of leaders; children who learn at an early age that brilliance is normative. We are accomplishing distinction through consistent prayer, a faithful faculty, and dedicated parents. Resist holding back. Let us give life all that we have, and we will be truly exceptional!

Coram Deo,
LaTonia Lambert
Dean of Academics

Men often hate each other because they fear each other; they fear each other because they don't know each other; they don't know each other because they can not communicate; they can not communicate because they are separated.
